Description

This one-day course concentrates on learning specific teaching skills for the didactic lectures, hands-on small group workstations and testing stations presented in the ALSO® Provider Course. This course focuses on adult learning, faculty development, giving effective feedback, teaching in small group workstations and evaluating participants in the two testing components used in the ALSO® Provider Course.

Target Audience

This course is directed primarily toward practicing maternity care physicians, third-year residents, certified nurse midwives and registered nurses who have successfully completed the ALSO® Provider Course and have current ALSO® Provider status at the time of the course.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to:

- Discuss educational tools that can be used when giving feedback to ALSO® course participants;
- Describe how to assist participants in dealing with questions and conflicts that can occur during the workstations that utilize PowerPoint, such as "Fetal Surveillance" and Obstetric Cases slides;
- Demonstrate teaching capabilities by providing hands-on role-play utilizing maternal-fetal mannequins along with timely feedback in order to adapt teaching methods to various situations; and
- Demonstrate how to give a lecture by leading a lecture and receive feedback from faculty and other participants that can be used to enhance lecture performance.

CreditAAFP Credit

This live activity, ALSO Instructor Course, with a beginning date of June 12, 2017, has been reviewed and is acceptable for up to 6.75 Prescribed credit(s) by the American Academy of Family Physicians. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The evidence-based CME content developed for this activity was based on a current clinical question that identifies gaps in learners' knowledge, competency and/or performance in medical practice as identified in the current evidence available at the time this activity was approved. Since clinical research is ongoing and new evidence to supporting practice improvement is constant, the AAFP recommends that learners verify sources and review these as well as practice recommendations prior to implementation into practice.

Instructor Course Manual

All participants are expected to bring with them an Instructor Course Manual and other course materials. The price of these materials is included in the registration fee. Every effort will be made to deliver these materials one month prior to the course. If your registration is received after April 23rd, you may arrange pickup of your materials or there will be a $50 charge to ship the materials via express mail.

Substitutes, Refunds and Transfers
