Program Description

The purpose of this seminar is to facilitate a sense of renewal and re-excitement related to professional nursing practice. This will be accomplished through an interactive deep dive into ANA Code of Ethics how to include strategies of how to incorporate the principles into clinical practice. Ethical issues and dilemmas, patient and nurse-centered will be discussed. The afternoon will focus on how team dynamics (ethical/unethical behaviors) influence effective resolution of ethical dilemmas and ultimately patient outcomes. Strong emphasis is placed on communication and conflict resolution techniques that actually work.

Attendee participation will be facilitated through-provoking case studies based on actual situations. This seminar is an absolute must for healthcare professionals who are committed to improving patient outcomes by providing Quality Evidence-based Care.

Outcome
