

Nutrition Update: Food Allergies, Fads and Special Needs Diets

Tuesday

October 24, 2017

9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Location:

Cumberland County Partnership for Children
351 Wagoner Drive
Fayetteville, NC 28303

Target Audience

Dietitians, nurses, and all healthcare professionals.

Program Description

Nutrition trends that were once popular tend to fade and there are emerging diets and nutrition topics that take the spotlight. We will explore a variety of diets that are accepted treatment for some diseases and we will evaluate some diets that are in the headlines of current magazines and social media. We will examine evidence-based research about diets that modify proteins and carbohydrates. We will also offer a tasting of new products and specialty products.

Objectives

Upon completion of this knowledge based program, the participant should be able to:

Discuss the impact of diets and nutritional trends on the body's health and disease processes.

Fee

$99 if payment and registration is received by October 16, $109 thereafter.

Speaker

Lesley Standord, MS, RD, CSP, LDN, Pediatric Nutritionist, Duke University Medical Center

Yen Lowder, RD, LDN, CNSC, Dietitian, Thoracic Transplant Clinic and Adult CF Clinic at Duke University Medical Center
